March 2018 Newsletter

Campaign Preview | HTML Source | Plain-Text Email | Details

March 2018

View this email in your browser

The Task Force Moves into New HQ With Eye to Increasing Program Impact

The last time The Task Force moved into a new building, George W. Bush was president and it had seven programs and 40 employees. Ten years later, The Task Force's extraordinary growth of programs and staff have spurred its move to a new headquarters – one that is three times larger and can accommodate its vision to become a global health center in Atlanta. Read more

Share Tweet

Program to Improve Quality of Medical Supplies and Equipment Donations Joins The Task Force

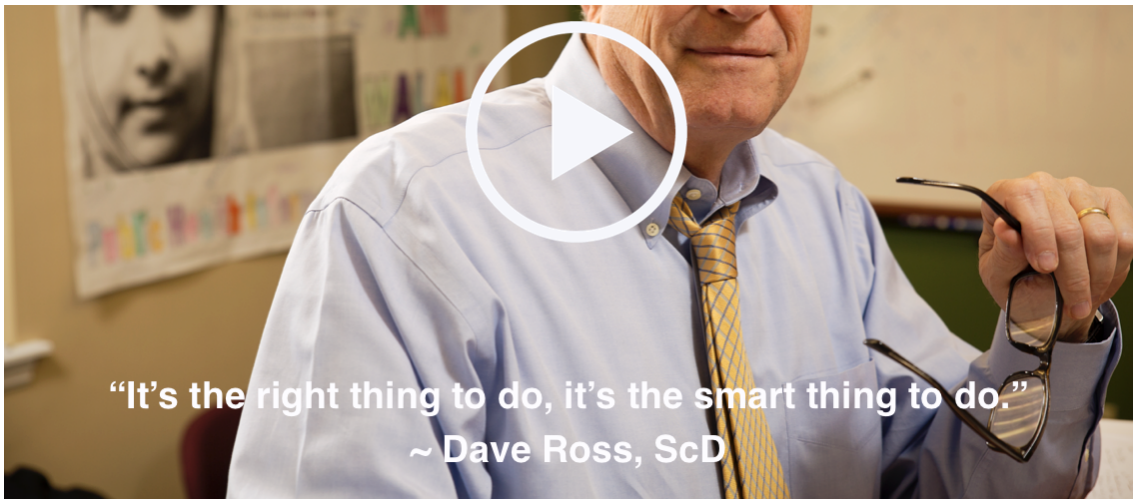
In 2010, Haiti received a flood of medical supplies and equipment donations after an earthquake ravaged the small island nation but much of the equipment was not requested or usable. Read more

Share Tweet

Blog - Trailblazing the End of Trachoma: Four reasons for Optimism in 2018

When the International Trachoma Initiative first opened its doors in 1998, there were many large knowledge gaps in the transmission and control of trachoma. Read more

Share Tweet



Video - Why Invest in Global Health Security?

Task Force CEO Dave Ross talks about our role as 'public health soldiers' and why the United States must help other countries stop infectious diseases. Watch here

Share Tweet

DONATE NOW

THE TASK FORCE FOR GLOBAL HEALTH

Copyright © 2019 The Task Force for Global Health, All rights reserved.
Thank you for signing up to receive the latest updates about our work around the world to provide all people with equal access to the means for good health.

Our mailing address is:
The Task Force for Global Health
330 W. Ponce de Leon Ave.
Decatur, Georgia 30030

Add us to your address book

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list