

FEATURED SPEAKERS

HEATHER M.B. HOWARD

Senior Global Health Advisor, Alight

DABNEY EVANS

Emory University, Dept. of Global Health

CHINTAN MARU

Global Development Incubator

TARA HOPKINS

Mali Health

DANIEL BURSSA

Federal Ministry of Health, Ethiopia

DEC 2019

INAUGURAL ROUNDS:

COMPASSION IN GLOBAL HEALTH PRACTICE

An introduction of global health efforts to cultivate compassion, through the example of Amandi—an initiative designed to unleash compassion in humanitarian settings and create experiences of connection and meaning for clients, staff, and community.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

MARIA REBELLO

WHO/AFRO, Elimination of NTDs

WILBERT POMERAI

Ministry of Health, Zimbabwe

LEKILAY TEMEH

Ministry of Health, Liberia

LIZ GRANT

University of Edinburgh

JANE CHUN

Compassion Institute

MATTHEW LEE

Harvard University Human Flourishing Program

TANYA WOOD

Core Humanitarian Standards Alliance

APR 2020

COMPASSION & COVID-19

A discussion of ideas on how to cultivate compassion in pandemic response at multiple levels. Presenters and participants offered reflections on the role of compassion in coping with COVID-19 in our homes, communities, and in health services.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

STEPHEN TRZECIAK

Author, Compassionomics

ANDREW LIKAKA

Ministry of Health, Malawi

LOUIS AKO-EGBE

District Health Manager, Cameroon

SAMIA ABUDULLE

Clarkston Community Clinic, Georgia, USA

AUG 2020

IS COMPASSION ESSENTIAL FOR QUALITY HEALTH CARE?

Dr. Trzeciak highlighted the compelling evidence around compassion and quality care—not only for patients, but also for providers and health care organizations. Reflectors offered their views on the utility of this evidence at national, district, and community levels of care.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

ALON GOSHEN-GOTTSEIN

Rabbi & Founder, Elijah Interfaith Institute

GILBERT BUCKLE

Public Health Physician, Ghana

M. BABAR QUERSHI

Christian Blind Mission

ANTHEA RAMOS

St. John of God Health Care, Australia

LOLITA DE ARAUJO

Hospital Nacional Guido Valadares, Timor-Leste

NOV 2020

THE ROLE OF FAITH IN CULTIVATING COMPASSION IN GLOBAL HEALTH

An exploration of the role of religious faith in motivating and sustaining compassionate action at multiple levels. Discussion focused on what this connection reveals about how we may cultivate compassion more broadly and effectively within our field.